

Houston Botanic Garden

RADIANT NATURE

SEE THE GARDEN GLOW

PRESENTED BY reliant

Nov. 17 – Feb. 25

Open 59 nights spanning the traditional Western holiday season through Lunar New Year and the Chinese Lantern Festival

Houston Botanic Garden is located just minutes from downtown off I-45 South near Loop 610

1 Botanic Lane, Houston, 77017

Local debut represents a special opportunity to see Houston's living museum for plants in a new light

Convenient on-site & remote parking with shuttle options offered

Festive food & beverage, as well as Asian handicrafts, available for purchase

More than 50 large-scale lantern installations, in three themed zones, celebrating the beauty of nature and the uniqueness of Asian culture

Interactive zone features illuminated swings, seesaws, and other immersive opportunities for family-friendly play and memory-making

Produced in partnership with Tianyu Arts & Culture, Inc., whose festivals draw millions of visitors each year to zoos, botanic gardens & natural science institutions across the U.S.
